MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Results of Operations from January 1, 2017 to June 30, 2017

Markets & Effect

Emerging markets equities generally rose in the first half of 2017, helped by a largely optimistic economic environment and investor excitement over the technology sector. A notable exception was Eastern European markets which lagged due to restrained commodity prices. Chinese markets should be supported at least until the Communist Party Plenum in November; and equity sentiment is likely to be lifted by the partial inclusion of A-Shares in global indices commencing in 2018. Market volatility remains low, which has led to more demand for risk assets. Emerging markets appear to be well positioned, supported by improving trade volumes, better corporate earnings and a benign dollar.

Performance

The Fund's Series A units trailed its benchmark, gaining 6.2% versus a gain of 14.7% for the MSCI Emerging Markets Index (the "Index").

The Fund returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses while the benchmark returns do not include any costs of investing. See the "Past Performance" section for the returns of the other series, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses or timing of series introduction.

Holdings in beverages made positive contributions to overall performance, while holdings in internet software & services detracted from performance during the period. Holdings in Turkey were the main contributor to performance, while holdings in China detracted from performance during the period.

Asset Mix

The Fund invests in a combination of equity and debt securities that are representative of different investment styles based on Lazard's view of market and economic conditions at the time. At June 30, 2017, equities made up 57.6% of the Fund, fixed income represented 22.4%, and 20.0% was in cash and other net assets.

The Fund's most significant industry exposure change was an increase in holdings in internet software & services to 3.9% from 2.4% at December 31, 2016.

Flows & Fees

The Fund's Net Asset Value increased to $34.2 million at June 30, 2017, from $29.8 million at December 31, 2016. Of this change, an increase of $2.0 million was due to positive investment performance (net of investment income), and an increase of $2.4 million was due to inflows.

For Series A units, the annualized management expense ratio ("MER") at June 30, 2017 is 2.79%, unchanged from December 31, 2016.

Recent Developments

There are no known changes at this time to the strategic positioning of the Fund, the manager, or portfolio sub-advisor.

On May 15, 2017, Bridgehouse announced that it intends to re-designate current investors in Series K to Series A, Series L to Series A, Series M to Series F and will eliminate Series K, Series L, Series M. The change is expected to be implemented on or about July 7, 2017. In anticipation of the Series re-designations, Series K, Series L and Series M will be closed to new purchases as of July 4, 2017.

International Financial Reporting Standards

The International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") issued IFRS 9 to replace IAS 39, "Financial Instruments—Recognition and Measurement". In December 2014, the IASB made further changes to the standard. With these amendments, IFRS 9 is now complete. IFRS 9 is to be applied retrospectively and it is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018. The Manager continues to assess the impact of IFRS 9.

IFRS 15 "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" was issued in May 2014 and is effective for years beginning on or after January 1, 2018, to be applied retrospectively or on a modified retrospective basis. IFRS 15 clarifies revenue recognition principles, provides a robust framework for recognizing revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers and enhances qualitative and quantitative disclosure requirements. IFRS 15 does not apply to insurance contracts, financial instruments and other related contractual rights and obligations and lease contracts. The Funds are assessing the impact of this standard. The Funds do not intend to early adopt this standard.

- The financial information presented in the Ratios and Supplemental Data table is derived from the Fund's Net Asset Value and is provided as at June 30, 2017 and December 31 of the previous years shown.
- The management expense ratio ("MER") is calculated as the total management fees and operating expenses paid by each series of the Fund, including GST/HST and interest and excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, and is expressed as a percentage of the average daily Net Asset Value of each series of the Fund on an annualized basis. Any management fee distributions paid by a series of the fund that effectively reduced management fees payable by some unitholders are not deducted from expenses to determine the overall MER of that series. The Manager, at its sole discretion, waives management fees or absorbs expenses. Such waivers and absorptions can be terminated at any time. The MERs of the Fund are shown both with and without the waiver and absorptions.
- Portfolio turnover rate is calculated at the Fund level based on the lesser of purchases or proceeds of sales of securities for the period, excluding cash, short term notes and bonds having maturity dates at acquisition of one year or less, divided by the average value of the portfolio securities for the period. The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.
- The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average Net Asset Value of the Fund. The trading expense ratio is calculated at the Fund level and applies to all series of the Fund.
