MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Investment Objective and Strategies

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve capital appreciation by investing in equities, debt and currencies of emerging market issuers. By actively managing equity, debt and currency allocations across market cycles, the Fund seeks to create a lower volatility pattern of returns when compared to emerging market equities.

The portfolio sub-advisor in respect of this Fund, Lazard Asset Management (Canada) Inc., has retained Lazard Asset Management LLC ("Lazard") as its sub-advisor, which employs a team-based approach in the management of the Fund. Lazard's strategy is founded on the philosophy that an understanding of the current economic environment can be coupled with research into the drivers of (and risk to) outperformance to create a portfolio aligned with the current economic cycle.

Risk

As an investor in this Fund, you should be prepared for short-term performance fluctuations, and be a patient, long-term holder.

There were no significant changes to the level or type of risk you would expect from the Fund over the course of the year. It continues to have a medium risk level. Refer to the Fund's simplified prospectus for a complete list of all risks.

Results of Operations from January 1, 2017 to December 31, 2017

Markets & Effect

Emerging markets equities enjoyed a strong year, driven by investor optimism about higher anticipated global economic growth. The MSCI Emerging Markets Index increased by 28%, as measured in Canadian dollar terms, in 2017, driven to a large extent by earnings improvements in China and Korea. Asian stocks substantially outperformed stocks in Latin America and eastern Europe. Information technology was the best-performing sector, aided by high revenue and profit growth. Commodity prices were generally weak in the first half of the year, but they then strengthened in the second half with copper and crude oil prices rising markedly. The year also had political and economic tensions, including several missile launches by North Korea and the first year of the Trump administration, which involved some changes to long-term US policy, such as protectionism, as well as some reflationary effects.

Performance

The Fund's Series A units trailed its benchmark, gaining 12.3% versus a gain of 28.3% for the MSCI Emerging Markets Index (the "Index").

The Fund returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses while the benchmark returns do not include any costs of investing. See the "Past Performance" section for the returns of the other series, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses or timing of series introduction.

Holdings in banks made positive contributions to overall performance, while holdings in chemicals detracted from performance during the period. Holdings in Russia contributed to performance, while an underweight to South Africa detracted from relative performance during the period.

Asset Mix

The Fund invests in a combination of equity and debt securities that are representative of different investment styles based on Lazard's view of market and economic conditions at the time. At December 31, 2017, equities made up 62.6% of the Fund, fixed income represented 21.7%, and 15.7% was in cash and other net assets.

The Fund's most significant industry exposure change was an increase in holdings in commercial banks to 13.5% from 11.6% at December 31, 2016.

Flows & Fees

The Fund's Net Asset Value increased to $38.0 million at December 31, 2017, from $29.8 million at December 31, 2016. Of this change, an increase of $4.2 million was due to positive investment performance (net of investment income), and an increase of $4.0 million was due to inflows.

For Series A units, the annualized management expense ratio ("MER") at December 31, 2017 is 2.79%, unchanged from December 31, 2016.

Recent Developments

There are no known changes at this time to the strategic positioning of the Fund, the manager, or portfolio sub-advisor.

On July 7, 2017, Bridgehouse re-designated current investors in Series K to Series A, Series L to Series A, Series M to Series F and eliminated Series K, Series L and Series M. In anticipation of the Series re-designations, Series K, Series L and Series M were closed to new purchases as of July 4, 2017.

International Financial Reporting Standards

IFRS 9, "Financial Instruments" ("IFRS 9")—The International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) issued IFRS 9 to replace IAS 39, "Financial Instruments—Recognition and Measurement". IFRS 9 introduces a model for classification and measurement, a single, forward-looking 'expected loss' impairment model and a substantially reformed approach to hedge accounting. The new single, principle based approach for determining the classification of financial assets is driven by cash flow characteristics and the business model in which an asset is held. The new model also results in a single impairment model being applied to all financial instruments, which will require more timely recognition of expected credit losses. It also includes changes in respect of own credit risk in measuring liabilities elected to be measured at fair value, so that gains caused by the deterioration of an entity's own credit risk on such liabilities are no longer recognized in profit or loss.

The new standard is effective for the Fund's for its fiscal year beginning January 1, 2018. On adoption of IFRS 9 the Fund's investment portfolio will continue to be classified as fair value through profit or loss. Other financial assets which are held for collection will continue to be measured at amortised cost with no material impact expected from application of the new impairment model. As a result, the adoption of IFRS 9 is not expected to have a material impact on the Fund's financial statements."

- The financial information presented in the Ratios and Supplemental Data table is derived from the Fund's Net Asset Value and is provided as at December 31 of the previous years shown.
- The management expense ratio ("MER") is calculated as the total management fees and operating expenses paid by each series of the Fund, including GST/HST and interest and excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, and is expressed as a percentage of the average daily Net Asset Value of each series of the Fund on an annualized basis. Any management fee distributions paid by a series of the fund that effectively reduced management fees payable by some unitholders are not deducted from expenses to determine the overall MER of that series. The Manager, at its sole discretion, waives management fees or absorbs expenses. Such waivers and absorptions can be terminated at any time. The MERs of the Fund are shown both with and without the waiver and absorptions.
- Portfolio turnover rate is calculated at the Fund level based on the lesser of purchases or proceeds of sales of securities for the period, excluding cash, short term notes and bonds having maturity dates at acquisition of one year or less, divided by the average value of the portfolio securities for the period. The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.
- The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average Net Asset Value of the Fund. The trading expense ratio is calculated at the Fund level and applies to all series of the Fund.

- Series A (33% / 67%)
